Application for Seasonal Cost Sharing Boating Space

The Seasonal Cost Sharing agreement for any mooring, slip or boat space is between Springfield Yacht and Canoe Club and the boat owner/member. This agreement is not transferable and does not extend to family or guests. Springfield Yacht and Canoe Club, its officers and members shall be held harmless from liability and assume no responsibility for any person, vessel or loss/damage to personal property. Members shall be responsible for safe use of all watercraft. No vessel shall exceed steerage speed within a SYCC basin. Proper docking lines and the use of boat fenders are required at the docks. Boat owners may be required to remove vessels in the event of high water or severe weather conditions. No vessel shall be launched or operated without a SYCC member present on the vessel. This agreement is subject to cancellation without refund should the member violate basin regulations, the aforementioned rules, or the vessel be neglected.

Boat owners shall submit a current copy of registration or documentation and insurance with the application.
