

2019 BYLAWS GRAMMAR CORRECTIONS

Page 3- Remove second period after dues.

Page 3- Add a comma after anniversary,

Page 4- Change

Any member with twenty-five years' Active membership status who reaches the age of sixty-five may apply for Senior Membership. Senior members:

Any member with twenty-five years' Active membership status who reaches age sixty-five may apply for Senior Membership. Senior members:

Page 6- Add a comma after ago,

Page 6- Add an apostrophe to member's

Page 10- Change

Notify each member by mail or electronic mail of the due date and the amount of annual dues.

Notify each member by mail or electronic mail the due date and the annual dues amount.

Page 11- Change

Is the approval body of the club and oversees the operations of the elected officers in conducting their duties and responsibilities. The Executive Board will:

The Executive Board will be the approval body of the club which oversees the operations of the elected officers in conducting their duties and responsibilities. The Executive Board will:

Page 12- add a comma after warranted,

Page 13- Change

- A. Personally interview each applicant, review the application and determine whether the applicant will meet the club's purpose.
- A. Interview each applicant in person, review the application and determine whether the applicant will meet the club's purpose.

Page 14- Change

2. After the January annual meeting and before the first of March to review proposed budgets and submit their recommendations to the Commodore before budget approvals.
2. Review proposed budgets after the January annual meeting and before the first of March and submit their recommendations to the Commodore before budget approvals.

Page 19- Change

The Board may assess all Active and Flag members, for extraordinary (in excess the club's liquid assets) expenses, or any other emergencies for not more than two-thirds of the annual dues. Assessments for other expenditures must be approved by a two-thirds majority vote. Only one assessment can be levied in any fiscal year.

The Board may assess all Active and Flag members, for extraordinary (more than the club's liquid assets) expenses, or any other emergencies for not more than two-thirds of the annual dues. Assessments for other expenditures must be approved by a two-thirds majority vote. Only one assessment can be levied in any fiscal year.

Page 19- add an apostrophe to club's

Page 20- Capitalize Coston

Page 20- Add a hyphen to five-pointed